By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For the Suppreſſing of Riots.

GEORGE R.

WHereas of late Years ſeveral Riots, Tumults and Unlawful Aſſemblies have been in many Parts of this Realm to the Diſturbance of the Publick Peace, and to the Endangering of all Order and Government and there is great Reaſon to apprehend, that the ſame were Promoted and Encouraged by thoſe whoſe Duty it was to have Prevented and Suppreſſed the ſame, and the like Diſorders are yet Continued and ſeveral of Our Loving Subjects, who have Endeavoured to Suppreſs the ſame, have been Barbarouſly Murdered and others Grievouſly Wounded: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Fourth, It is Ordained and Eſtabliſhed, That if any Riot, Aſſembly, or Rout of People againſt the Law, be made in Parts of the Realm that the Juſtices of the Peace, Three or Two of them at the leaſt and the Sheriff or Under-Sheriff of the County where ſuch Riot, Aſſembly, or Rout ſhall be made ſhall come with the Power of the County, if need be, to Arreſt them, and ſhall Arreſt them; and the ſame Juſtices, Sheriff or Under Sheriff, ſhall have Power to Record that which ſhall be found ſo done in their Preſence againſt the Laws and that by the Record of the ſaid Juſtices, Sheriff or Under Sheriff, ſuch Treſpaſſers and Offenders ſhall be Convict: Now to the end that the Offenders aforeſaid may be brought to Juſtice, and for Preventing the like Traiterous and Riotous Aſſemblies for the future We have thought fit, by the Advice of our Privy Council to Iſſue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby ſtrictly Commanding and Requiring all Our Juſtices of the Peace and all other Our Civil Officers, That they uſe their utmoſt Endeavours for diſcovering and apprehending the ſaid Offenders, that they may be brought to Juſtice; and that the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, Sheriffs, and Under-Sheriffs, do uſe the moſt effectual Means for Suppreſſing all Riots and Tumults and to that end do put the ſaid Statute and all other Statutes made in England againſt Riots Routs and Unlawful Aſſemblies, in Execution; and that the ſaid Juſtices, and all other Our Civil Officers, to whom it doth appertain, do give the neceſſary Directions, That ſufficient Watch and Ward be duly kept, at ſuch Times as they ſhall Judge neceſſary, for the Preventing and Suppreſſing the like Diſorders. And We do hereby further ſtrictly Charge and Command all Our Officers, Civil and Military, and all other Our Loving Subjects, That they be Aiding and Aſſiſting in the Execution of Our Commands herein, and in the Apprehending and Taking all ſuch Perſons, who have or ſhall hereafter Offend in manner aforeſaid. And We do hereby Charge and Command, That the ſaid Offenders be Proſecuted with the utmoſt Severity and Rigour of the Law, We being Reſolved to Suppreſs ſuch Riots and Tumults by a moſt Strict and Exemplary Puniſhment of all ſuch Offenders as have been already or ſhall be Diſcovered. And We do hereby Command the reſpective Juſtices of the Peace and other Magiſtrates aforeſaid, That they do from time to time, Tranſmit an exact Account of what they ſhall do, purſuant to this Our Proclamation, to One of Our Principal Secretaries of State.

Given at Our Court at St. James's the Second Day of November, 1714. In the Firſt Year of Our Reign.

God ſave the KING.

Venice, October 20. N. S. The 17th of this Month arrived a Veſſel from Cattaro, with Letters from Conſtantinople, the freſheſt Dates of which are on the 23d of Auguſt, and give an Account, that the Rebellion of ſome Baſſhaws in Aſia was grown very formidable; that certain Officers having been ſent from Conſtantinople, with Orders to endeavour to work upon the Rebels, either by Threats or Promiſes, to lay down their Arms, were ſo far from being regarded, that the Rebels in a Rage ſeized them, with ſome whom they had prevailed on to ſubmit to the Porte, cut off their Noſes and Ears, and ſent them back to Conſtantinople. At the ſame time they ſent to demand the Heads of the Grand Vizier and of ſeveral Officers his Creatures, accuſing him of having put to Death for no Cauſe, and meerly upon Suggeſtions of private Malice, a great Number of the Sultan's good Subjects, and of being acceſſary to the Death of Sultan Ibrahim. The Grand Vizier ſent aboard the Gallies thoſe who came back from Aſia ſo mutilated, leaſt the Sight of them ſhould have excited ſome Tumult. At the ſame time he ordered a Number of Janiſaries to paſs over into Aſia, and ſent to the Baſſhaws of the Neighbouring Provinces to draw together all their Troops, and march againſt the Rebels.

Hambourg Nov 2. N S. The Duke Adminiſtrator of Holſtein and the Count de Welling have received Letters, the firſt from his Miniſter M. Fabricius, the other from the Swediſh Chancellor Muller, written from Demotica, and brought hither by an Expreſs: Theſe Letters are dated the 30th of September, and relate, that the Sultan's Preſent to the King of Sweden, of 11 Horſes, a Sabre, and a Magnificent Tent, being arrived, his Majeſty had determined to begin his Journey the 1ſt of October, inſtead of the 4th, which he had before fixed for the Day of his Departure. That the ſaid M. Fabricius would accompany his Majeſty till he had paſſed the Danube, and then would go Poſt to Vienna, and there wait for his Majeſty: That the Swediſh Troops from Bender commanded by General Sparre, which we are informed do not exceed 500 Men, are to join the King near Tergoviſta in Walachia, and then proceed to Hermanſtad in Tranſylvania, where their further March will be regulated: That the King had cauſed his Compliments to be made to the Emperor for his obliging Offers, in relation to his Paſſage through his Dominions, offering on his Part to take that Route which his Imperial Majeſty ſhall adviſe him to be the ſafeſt: That his Majeſty had alſo returned Thanks to the Emperor, for the Civilities ſhewn to King Staniſlaus in his Paſſage through the Imperial Territories, aſſuring him that his Majeſty looked upon them as if done to himſelf. That his ſaid Majeſty had asked 500 Purſes of the Porte, who offered him but 100, which his Majeſty declined accepting, and borrowed at Conſtantinople 40000 Crowns of the Engliſh Merchants, and 20000 of the French. The Duke of Mecklenbourg-Swerin is gone to meet the King of Sweden, and is ſaid to have taken with him Remittances for conſiderable Sums which he deſigns to preſent to his Majeſty. The Marriage of the Hereditary Prince of Heſſe-Caſſel with the Princeſs Royal of Sweden, is thought to be intirely agreed; and that 'tis in Conſideration of this Match, that the Landgrave of Heſſe has entred into Engagements with his Swediſh Majeſty. The Count de Welling and his Son-in Law M. Barrier Counſellor of Holſtein, went from hence Yeſterday Morning very early for Harbourg, without taking leave of any Perſon the Count only leaving on his Table a Letter ſealed for his Secretary, directing him whither to follow him with all his Domeſticks and Baggage: This Secrecy is uſed that the Danes may not know which way the ſaid Count take. 'Tis ſuppoſed he is gone to Stralſund there to wait the Arrival of the King his Maſter; or to Deux ponts to the Court of Caſſel, at both which Places 'tis [illegible] ed that King will call in his Paſſage to Pomer[illegible]e have Letters from Conſtantinople of the 27th [illegible]-tember which relate, that the Execution of Con[illegible]ne Baſſaraba (who had govern'd Walachia 26 Years in the Quality of Hoſpodar or Prince) with his four Sons, who were all his Male Deſcendants, was for the following Crimes, viz. that he had Correſponded with the Enemies of the Porte, that he had been the Occaſion of the Irruption which the Czar made into Moldavia, that during his Adminiſtration he had treated the Grand Signior's Subjects with great Violence and Injuſtice exacting from them intolerable Contributions, and that having purchaſed divers Caſtles and Eſtates in Tranſylvania, he had remitted the reſt of his Money to Venice and elſewhere. Theſe Letters add that the ſaid Execution will ſerve for an Example to the Greeks, who at this time have the Government of the Provinces of Moldavia and Wallachia. In the mean while, the Turks were hardly ever known to talk ſo publickly, and with ſo great Freedom as they do now againſt their own Court, and particularly againſt the preſent Grand Vizier.

Warſaw, October 24. N. S. His Poliſh Majeſty ſeems to be now fully reſolved to ſend all his Saxon Infantry out of the Kingdom excepting the Regiment of Foot Guards conſiſting of 2 Battalions; and 'tis propoſed to take ſuch Meaſures for the Subſiſtance of the Cavalry which is to remain in Poland, that the Burthen ſhall not not be much felt by the Country: But the Poles can hardly think this practicable in their present Circumstances, and indeed this Country is at this time in such a miserable Condition, and even Bread is so scarce in many Places, that most People are afraid of a Famine, which is the only publick sort of Calamity that Poland has not felt within these few Years. The Palatine of Mazovia who hath been Ambassador from the Republick at the Porte, is now upon his way homeward, and is expected here towards the End of next Week: After his Arrival 'tis thought the King will call a great Council of the Senators, as is usual, in order to receive an Account of the Ambassador's Negociations at the Porte, as also to advise what Measures may be proper to be taken in the present Juncture of Affairs. Major General Kappe, Governor of Caminiec, is lately come hither, to represent that the Garrison there is so small and ill provided with Amunition and other Necessaries, that it is to be feared the Turks in the Neighbourhood observing the defenceless State of the Place, may incline to make themselves Masters of it, which the said Governor thinks they might very easily do.

Warsaw, October 27. N. S. Yesterday the King gave Audience to the Deputies of the Palatinate of Sendomir, who in a pathetick Speech remonstrated to his Majesty the deplorable Condition to which their Province is reduced, and their utter Inability to contribute what is demanded of them for the Maintenance of the Saxon Troops: In the Close, they humbly implored the King's Compassion and Pardon, if any thing irregular or ill becoming good Subjects had of late appeared in their Conduct, to which they assured his Majesty nothing could ever have brought them but Misery and Despair. The great Chancellor Schanbeck answered for the King, that his Majesty had always had a very tender Concern for the Welfare of his Subjects, that it was to secure them from the Danger with which they were threatned last Year by the Turks that he had brought so many Saxon Troops into Poland, but now that the Danger was less to be apprehended he had resolved, for the present Relief of the Country, to send away half of those Troops immediately, and the rest as soon as Peace could be obtained with Sweden; but that notwithstanding this his Majesty's gracious Resolution, the Nobility of the Palatinate of Sendomir had in a particular Manner presumed to distinguish themselves by a factious mutinous Attempt, and had by their unseasonable rising in Arms hindred his Majesty from executing what he had resolved; so that they must blame themselves that they are not already eased of a good Part of the Pressures occasioned by the Saxons; nor could they now in Reason expect that his Majesty should send his Troops out of Poland, till such Time as he is well assured not only of the good Behaviour of their Province of Sendomir, but also of the quiet Disposition of other Provinces, which 'tis thought by the Influence of their Example may incline also to mutiny. Such an Answer as this has been given to the Deputies of Sendomir, who are not a little mortified with it.

Madrid, October 22. N. S. The King by Letters Patents has established an Academy in this City: It is to consist of twenty four Persons, who under his Protection are to employ themselves in refining and polishing the Castilian Language, and giving it all the Purity and Perfection of which it is capable; and he allows them a Table at Court, with the Honours and Privileges of Officers of his Houshold. His Majesty has nominated for Director of this Academy the Marquis de Villena, Duke d'Escalona his Majordomo Major, who is one of the most Learned Noblemen of Spain, and for Secretary Don Vincencio Squarzafigo. An extraordinary Courier, who arrived here the 13th of this Month, brought Advice, that the Queen had imbarked at Sestri di Levante on Board the Gallies, with Design to continue her Voyage by Sea in the Squadron of Spanish Men of War, commanded by Don Andrés de Pez, who waited for her in the Road of Genoa; but she was so much disordered by the rough Passage she happened to have thither, that she determined to proceed by Land, and to come cross France through Provence and Languedoc, and enter Spain by Roncevaux and Pampelona. We have since received an Account, that the 9th of last Month the Queen set out from San Pier d'Arena, and arrived the 11th at Savona. 'Tis advised from Alicant, that it having been believed her Majesty would land there, the Duke de Medina Celi was arrived there with all her Houshold; and that the Inhabitants were making Preparations Day and Night for receiving her in the most magnificent manner: But a Courier is sent, to let them know that her Majesty comes another way. Some Days ago the Count de Mulazzano, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Parma, arrived here: He has had a private Audience of the King; and is getting ready his Equipage, for making his Publick Entry. The last Letters from Barcelona relate, that a Proclamation having been published there, forbidding the carrying Arms, or keeping any in the House on Pain of Death, Fourscore thousand Fire-Arms, belonging to the Inhabitants of that Town, and of the Neighbouring Places, had already been brought into the Town-House. The same Prohibition was putting in Execution throughout the rest of that Principality, without any Trouble or Opposition. The Marshal Duke of Berwick is expected here in a few Days. The King has sent into France Don Antonio del Castillo, a Major General, and eldest Son of the Marquis de Villadarias, to return Thanks to his most Christian Majesty for the Assistance he gave him to facilitate the Reduction of Barcelona, and of all Catalonia. The 14 Officers of the Barcelonians who were siezed and put aboard the 22d of September, to be carried to Alicant, are, General Basset who commanded the Artillery, Don Sebastian Dalmau Colonel of the Regiment of Horse of the Faith, Don Simon Sancher first Captain of that Regiment, Don Gaetan Anrillan Major of the same Regiment, Don Joseph Belver y Balaguer called Josepet, Major General, and Colonel of the Foot Regiment of the Rosary, Don Felix Belvir his Son, Don Francis Vilar Major of that Regiment, Don Francis Sanz Colonel of the Foot Regiment of the Deputation, Don Raymond Sanz his Son Captain of Grenadiers of that Regiment, Don Nicholas Axendri Lieutenant Colonel of the same Regiment, Don Llinas Collonel of the Foot Regiment of St. Narcessus, Don Joseph de Torres Collonel of the Regiment of Foot of Valencia, Don Francis Majans his Lieutenant Collonel, and one Bordes a Captain. The Ship which took them in is arrived at Alicant, with two other Officers, who are supposed to be Sig. del Poal and his Brother, or those who were formerly sent to Peniscola; and they are all to be distributed into separate Prisons. Three other Officers made their Escape by Sea the same Day. The Marquis de Villaroel, Generalissimo of the Barcelonians, being dangerously wounded, is allowed to confine himself to his own House, giving his Promise in Writing not to leave it without Order. The Bishop of Albarrazin in Arragon, being found in Barcelona, whither he had retired after the Battle of Saragossa, was put aboard a Gally and sent to Italy. Four Friars, who by their Preaching had animated the People

People to perſiſt in their Revolt, are ſent to be cloſe confined in divers Priſons of Spain. Beſides which, twenty eight Eccleſiaſticks and Religious of ſeveral Orders, have been ordered to depart Barcelona in four and twenty hours, and Catalonia in 8 Days, with a Prohibition to enter any of the Dominions of the Spaniſh Monarchy. All the People of Catalonia are diſarming. The Marſhal Berwick has ſent to Majorca M. d'Adoncourt, Adjutant-General of his Army, to confer with the Governor and the principal Perſons of the Iſland.

Paris, Nov. 10. N. S. The Queen of Spain arrived at Antibes the 19th of laſt Month, and the 27th at Marſeilles, where ſhe deſigned to ſtop three Days.

Ratisbon, Octob. 29. N. S. The Proteſtation of the Elector Palatine againſt the intire Reſtitution of the Elector of Bavaria, which is ſtipulated by the Treaty of Baden, relates not only to the upper Palatinate and the County of Cham, but to the Dignity of High Steward of the Empire, and his Rank in the Electoral College, 'till ſome Equivalent be given him. On the 25th Inſtant another Proteſtation of the ſame Tenour was made by the Prince Palatine of Sultzbach, as Heir to the Elector Palatine, in caſe his Electoral Highneſs and his Brothers dye without Male Iſſue. On the 26th a Proteſtation in the Name of the King of Great Britain, as Elector of Hanover, was entred in the Electoral College againſt the Re-eſtabliſhment of the Elector of Bavaria in his Rank and Dignity, as being Prejudicial to what his Majeſty now enjoys as High-Treaſurer of the Empire. On the 25th a Letter from the Magiſtrates of Liege was communicated to the Diet, complaining of the Juriſdiction which the Governor of the Citadel pretends to have a Right to Exerciſe, and deſiring them to intercede with the Emperor, to the end the Gariſon of the States-General may be removed without delay.

Antwerp, Nov. 6. N. S. Yeſterday Mr. Cadogan, Plenipotentiary from the King of Great Britain, came hither from Bruſſels; and having notified his Arrival to the Deputies of the States General, they made him the firſt Viſit this Morning, gave him a ſuccinct Account of what has paſſed between the Emperor's Miniſter and them in the Negotiation of the Barrier, and intend to put into his Hands forthwith Copies of the Propoſitions that have been made on both Sides, as alſo the Remarks of each Party on the ſeveral Points propoſed.

Hague, Nov. 13. N. S. On the 10th the Counteſs of Portland went from hence for England, as did the next Day Count Noſtitz Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Poland, and yeſterday Prince Kurakin Ambaſſador from the Czar. The Courier whom the Count de Koningſeck diſpatched to Vienna the 14th of laſt Month, returning to Antwerp the 7th Inſtant, a Conference was held the 9th in the Stadhouſe there, at which Mr. Cadogan aſſiſted. The States-General have received an Expreſs from their Deputies at Antwerp, and two of thoſe Deputies, viz. M. Van der Duſſen and Count Rechteren are expected here to Morrow, to make Report to their High Mightineſſes of their Negotiations about the Barrier. Yeſterday Baron Heems, the Emperor's Miniſter here, had a Conference with the States. Their High Mightineſſes have not yet nominated their Ambaſſadors to Congratulate the King of Great Britain on his Acceſſion to the Throne. We have Advice, that the Ratifications of the Treaty of Peace concluded at Baden between the Emperor and Empire and France, were Exchanged there the 28th of laſt Month.

St. James's, Nov. 5. His Grace the Duke of Kent being appointed Lord Lieutenant of the Counties of Bedford and Hereford, and having reſigned the Lieutenancy of Herefordſhire, his Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the Right Honourable the Lord Coningsby to be Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the Right Honourable David Earl of Portmore to be Governor of Gibraltar.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the Right Honourable George Earl of Cardigan to be Maſter of his Majeſty's Buck-Hounds.
